IPP Meeting
November 8, 2010

Next meeting will be held on Jan. 10th at 7 p.m.

IPP Updates

- Fundraising
 - Auction. February 26, 2011 at the Trolley Barn. Each family is asked to donate 1 item to be bid upon. It could be a new item or a service (e.g., computer or financial services, babysitting, skymiles, etc). One box will be placed in the house and one in the church for donations. Volunteers still needed to help with solicitation, set-up and break down day of, etc.
 - Book fair. IPP gets a percentage for instore purchases during December 5 and 6 at Edgewood Barnes and Noble, and online purchases for the week. A voucher will be put in book bags. We plan on having teacher story times on Dec. 5 and Dec. 6.
 - Other fundraising options. Discussed selling IPP water bottles, reusable bags, bumper stickers.
- Technology and Facilities. A big thank you to those who turned out for the volunteer workday. Another one will be scheduled in the spring. There is a “Running Facilities” wishlist for those who would like to volunteer their time, even a ½ hour would be appreciated!!

Special Events

- Winter Pageant. Tuesday, Dec. 14. The theme will be “Night Sky”. A Write Board will be made available to sign up for food and decorating.
- Needy Families. Volunteer needed to head up the drive for 2 needy families. Organizer will organize collection of needed items and distribute to the families.
- Winter Drive. New and gently adults &/or childrens used coats, hats, gloves etc will be collected beginning the end of November.

Treasurer Report $8973.91. All lunch brigaders that were paying for the year in full have paid.

Communication Look for the link “Meal Baby” at the bottom of the Info-on-the-Go newsletter to sign up to provide dinners for new parents.
